Please!!! consider this while waiting to win the lottery. I have finally found a group of people that really help each other. It will only cost u a little of your time. Once u get there just say that u were invited by Dan Schafer and would like to know what the Abundance Team has to offer. I don't get referral money, we work as a group. I can assure u we have something going right now that will get u motivated. I've never seen anything like it. Just e-mail Carol Handler <alexandstar@yahoo.com (posted 7/26/09)
